

TOP REASONS TO CHOOSE PEGASUS OPERA II

Opera II is the latest, most versatile and user-friendly accounting, payroll & HR, manufacturing and E-commerce solution from Pegasus software. It delivers a real competitive edge - a giant leap forward in the functionality and development of accounting software, this unique financial and business management solution meets more business requirements than any other. Innovative and scheduling tools help you maximise productivity and manage your business to its full potential.

Key features

Simple implementation

- Seamless upgrade from Opera, no need for data conversion
- Conversion tools available for other systems
- Rapid deployment – no need for extensive training
- Intuitive – lower implementation costs

More than just Accounting

- Financial and Supply Chain Management
- Payroll and HR
- Manufacturing
- Construction

Links with other systems in your business

- Data import and export facilities
- Easy to customise
- E-mail integration
- Microsoft Office integration

Lower cost of ownership

- Scalability - Opera II evolves with you as business requirements change

Example of CRM screen working within Opera II

- Budget yearly for legislative and software upgrades - a Pegasus Annual Maintenance Contract covers all
- Reduced IT overheads - Microsoft technology offers greater resilience against hardware or network failure

Effective business communication

- Identify developing trends that can have a direct impact on profitability
- Improved debtor management
- Production of timely management information for non-financial managers

Access to business critical information

- Optimisation of stock
- Effective budgetary controls
- Monitor and maximise sales opportunities

Benefits of choosing Opera II

- Improved business planning with strong reporting functionality
- Software integration for sales staff to have visibility of opportunities from customer sales to payment history
- Data security to protect your company from any threats
- Easier access of up-to-date customer information
- Improved control, from product quality to customer information
- Greater software flexibility to work the way you do